

PROFILES

CONTENTS

29TH MAY, 2013

THE COMMISSION

Ms.Rahat Kaunain Hassan	1
Dr. Joseph Wilson	2
Mr. Shahzad Ansar	3
Mr. Mueen Batlay	4
Mr. Mohammed Hayat Jasra	5
Mr. Ikram-ul-Haque Qureshi	6

CHIEF GUEST

H.E. Lars-Gunnar Wigemark	7
---------------------------------	---

OPENING SESSION

Mr. Eduardo Pérez Motta	8
-------------------------------	---

SESSION 1

Prof. Richard Janda	9
Prof. William Kovacic	10
Mr. Ali Salman	11

SESSION 2

Mr. Theodore Voorhees	12
Mr. Ratnesh Nandan Sahay	13
Ms. Gabriele Herlemann	14

SESSION 3

Mr. Manuel Sebastião	15
Mr. John M. Connor	16
Mr. Fernando Furlan	17
Mr. John K. Daina	18

SESSION 4

Mr. Timothy T. Hughes	19
Ms. Hilary Jennings	20
Ms. Kasturi Moodaliyar	21
Mr. Saad Amanullah Khan	22
Mr. Eric Manes	23

DELEGATES AS PARTICIPANTS

Dr. Orcun Senyuçel	24
Mr. El Hassan Berri	25
Mr. Jean-Sébastien Roure	26

CONTENTS

30TH MAY, 2013

CHIEF GUEST

Mr. Pierre Mayaudon 28

ROUND TABLE 1

Mr. Kaukab Iqbal 29

Dr. Huma Bukhari 30

Mr. Hamid Maker 31

ROUND TABLE 2

Dr. Christina Hummer 32

Dr M. Fevzi Toksoy 33

ROUND TABLE 3

Mr. Charles Webb 34

Mr. James Douglas 35

MS. RAHAT KAUNAIN HASSAN

CHAIRPERSON
COMPETITION COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

Ms. Rahat Kaunain Hassan is the Chairperson of the Competition Commission of Pakistan (CCP) since July 26, 2010. Under her leadership, CCP has gained international repute for achieving substantive progress in competition law enforcement in a short span of time. Earlier, Ms. Hassan served CCP as Member (Legal and Office of Fair Trading) since its establishment in November 2007.

Ms. Hassan received LL.M. degree from King's College, London. She has been associated with, and has been a partner at, some of the finest civil and commercial law firms in Pakistan.

In 2001, Ms. Hassan was appointed General Counsel/Executive Director at the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP). Soon after the conclusion of her tenure at SECP, Ms. Hassan established her own law firm, handling civil and commercial litigation and regulatory work. She was instrumental in the establishment of the Office of Fair Trading within CCP and has authored numerous position papers, guidelines, policy notes on important issues of competition law and policy. Moreover, she has authored, co-authored most of the seminal Orders passed by CCP, including those that resulted in breaking the most pernicious of cartels.

Under her leadership, CCP has been twice nominated/short listed amongst top 5 agencies for GCR Enforcement 'Agency of the year Award' out of 42 agencies in the region of Asia Pacific Middle East and Africa, by the Global Competition Review – a UK based organization. Since 2010, CCP has been volunteering for GCR third party independent evaluation, wherein, CCP's performance has been termed as 'impressively consistent' and presently upon her request, CCP is undergoing 'Peer Review' by UNCTAD to assess and evaluate the impact of CCP's performance with recommendation of possible improvements.

A working mother of four, Ms. Hassan has been a high achiever in her field, and in recognition of her commitment to the public service, she received the prestigious 'Women of Achievement Award, 2010' and Wonder Women Award, 2013. She has also been nominated for the Sitara-e-Imtiaz.

DR. JOSEPH WILSON

MEMBER
COMPETITION COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

With over 19 years experience of practice, teaching and research in regulatory laws, Dr. Wilson has been serving as Member at the Competition Commission of Pakistan since the Commission's establishment in 2007. He was responsible for the Monopolies and Trade Abuses Department for the first two years, and now oversees the Mergers & Acquisitions, and International Affairs Departments.

Prior to joining the Commission, he was an Associate Professor of Law at the Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS), Pakistan, where he taught "competition law" in addition to other courses. He has presented at various international conferences, published in international law journals and authored a book title "Globalization and the Limits of National Merger Control Laws (published by Kluwer Law International).

Before joining LUMS, Dr. Wilson taught at McGill's Faculty of Law, Montreal Canada, from where he earned Doctor of Civil Law (D.C.L.) with Deans Honour List and Masters of Law (LL.M.). He also holds an LL.M. from the University of Georgia, USA. He is a member of the State Bar of New York, USA and Lahore High Court Bar, and also serves on the International Advisory Board of the Loyola University Chicago's Institute for Consumer Antitrust Studies, USA.

MR. SHAHZAD ANSAR

MEMBER
COMPETITION COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

Mr. Ansar is predominantly a private sector entrepreneur with over 27 years' in management, business development and project finance. Since February 2011, he is responsible for the activities of the Office of Fair Trading and Budgetary Affairs Department of the Commission.

Before joining the Commission, Mr. Ansar held the CEO positions at Furniture Pakistan, a subsidiary of Pakistan Industrial Development Corporation, a thermal power plant, and was the head at World Water Corporation USA for its operations in Pakistan. As a businessman, he managed two industrial units from their inception to full-scale operation. He has been actively involved in trading with companies based in Singapore, Malaysia, USA, Canada and China, and holds strong ties with international players in the energy and commodities sectors. He has also been involved in consultancy projects in the fields of SME management, micro-financing and energy. He has substantial experience in dealing with international financial organisations such as the World Bank.

On the academic front, Mr. Ansar has been associated with the Virtual University (Ministry of Information Technology) as a resource person. He was the Dean of Management Sciences at the University of South Asia while being a visiting faculty member at University of Central Punjab and Civil Services Academy.

Mr. Ansar holds a Masters degree in Engineering Geology from Institute of Geology, University of the Punjab. He is Fellow at Trinity College and a certified SME manager in the Doctorate category from Cambridge Association of Management.

MR. MUEEN BATLAY

MEMBER
COMPETITION COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

Mr. Batlay, Member (Competition Policy and Research), has worked in the fields of investment banking, international development, consulting, education and public policy in Pakistan and overseas for over 20 years.

Mr. Batlay joined the Commission in January, 2011, and is focused on building the capacity of the Competition Policy and Research Department to enable the Commission to assist the government in shaping a Competition Policy that is in line with the true spirit of competition as envisioned in the Competition Act, 2010. In addition, he is strengthening the department's research capabilities to produce policy notes, competition assessments and regular publications to assist the Commission in its work.

Prior to joining the Commission, Mr. Batlay managed an investment advisory and a consulting firm, Capital Resource. His assignments included project finance, advisory and public private partnership projects at Samba Bank, Pakistan; private sector development, privatization, and capital market development at the World Bank, USA; education policy and public schools system management for the city of Washington DC, USA; and economic reform management for the Government of Sindh. While at the World Bank, he advised the governments of Sri Lanka and Jordan in developing their privatization programmes and worked to strengthen capital markets globally. With the Government of Sindh, he channelled the efforts of multiple public private taskforces to develop and implement an economic reform program for the province. At Citibank, he worked on privatization advisory and on developing term finance certificates - the first corporate bonds of Pakistan. For Washington DC schools, he initiated the student tracking and database management programs.

Mr. Batlay holds a Master of Public Policy (MPP) with emphasis on international trade and finance from the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University.

MR. MOHAMMED HAYAT JASRA

SECRETARY
COMPETITION COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

Mr. Jasra was appointed as Secretary to the Commission on 12 November 2007, the date the Commission was established. Mr. Jasra holds Masters Degree in Economics and an L.L.B (Honours) degree. He is Fellow Member of the Institute of Cost and Management Accountants and is also Member of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries & Administrators, UK.

Mr. Jasra has an extensive experience of 26 years in different senior positions at Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan. He was working with SECP as its Secretary and also Executive Director (Law), when he sought retirement on personal grounds from SECP. Mr. Jasra has rendered valuable services to the Commission as Secretary and also as Legal Expert. Apart from his duties as Secretary, he assisted the Commission by drafting all the Regulations and the Rules framed under the Competition Ordinance/Act and also notifying in the Gazette of Pakistan, all the important decisions of the Commission.

MR. IKRAM-UL-HAQUE QURESHI

REGISTRAR / DIRECTOR GENERAL (LEGAL)
COMPETITION COMMISSION OF PAKISTAN

Mr. Qureshi serves as both the Registrar and as Director General in the Commission. His current job responsibilities include serving as head of the Legal Department, managing the legal affairs of the Commission and to arrange the hearings and assist the adjudicating Members in Competition Law and other Legal matters. Earlier he was also entrusted with the additional charge of the Director General Office of Fair Trading. Under his able leadership, OFT has exposed the deceptive marketing practices of undertakings in the banking and the telecom sector. While acting as the Registrar/Director General (Legal) of the Commission, Mr. Qureshi supervises and manages all the litigation by or against the Commission before the Superior Courts in addition to finalizing the pleadings to be filed in the Courts. He also acts as a liaison officer at the Commission to interact with the Ministries and other Governmental and Regulatory Bodies. Mr. Qureshi has appeared before the August Supreme Court of Pakistan and Hon 'able Supreme Court and also represented the Commission before the Parliament in various matters and also during the phase of enactment of Competition Law in Pakistan.

A lawyer with keen insight, he has a nuanced understanding of the regulatory and business climate of Pakistan. His vast experience in drafting secondary legislation is another asset. Mr. Qureshi brings with him invaluable experience of having worked in the private and the public sector, including regulatory bodies such as the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP). Mr. Qureshi within his passion for the improving the legal framework within the organization played a pivotal role in establishing the Legal Department at SECP when he joined SECP in 2001. He has also worked as the Senior Legal Advisor to the Federal Government's Infrastructure Project Development Facility (IPDF). He co-authored the book on Standardized Public Private Partnership Provision(s). He also acted as Acting Head of Legal Department at Pakistan Telecommunication Corporation Limited (PTCL). His areas of specialization include the companies and securities legislation of Pakistan, telecommunication as well as laws relating to public procurement. In these positions, he provided timely and relevant legal services to each private or public entity, to ensure compliance with the laws of Pakistan. Mr. Qureshi also has significant private sector experience as he has also worked in private law firms of International recognition in Islamabad, and has also taught at the College of Financial Management and Sciences to the students of Accountancy, MBA Program at IQRA University and the Civil Servants of BPS 18 & 19 at the National Institute of Management Academy, Peshawar.

He is a most able ambassador and has represented the Commission at various international conferences, which inter alia include representing the Commission at the International Judicial Conference 2013 held at Islamabad from 19th April to 21st April 2013 and International Conference on Justice and Consumer Rights: UN Guidelines for Consumer Protection held at International Law Institute of Wuhan University, China. While at the International Judicial Conference 2013 Mr. Qureshi presented the paper in the panel of Role of Judiciary in Protection of Consumers from Anti-competition Practices.

H.E. LARS-GUNNAR WIGEMARK

EU AMBASSADOR
HEAD OF EU DELEGATION TO PAKISTAN

Ambassador Lars-Gunnar Wigemark is the Head of the European Union Delegation to Pakistan. He was born on March 20, 1960 in Göteborg, Sweden. He graduated from Harvard University in 1984 with an A.B. Magna Cum Laude in Social Science and holds a Master's Degree from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy in International Law and Economics.

In 1988 he joined the Swedish Foreign Service in Stockholm and has been posted to Belgrade, Washington, Brussels, Kabul and Moscow, where he served as Deputy Head and Minister at the Swedish Embassy 2003-2007.

In 2008 Lars-Gunnar Wigemark was appointed Head of the Security Policy Unit in the European Commission and as of December 2010 he is working in the External Action Service of the European Union.

In September 2010 the European Union High Representative Catherine Ashton appointed Mr Wigemark as one of the first EU ambassadors under the Lisbon Treaty. He took up his new duties in Pakistan in early February 2011.

MR. EDUARDO PÉREZ MOTTA

CHAIRMAN
MEXICAN FEDERAL COMPETITION COMMISSION (CFC)
MEXICO

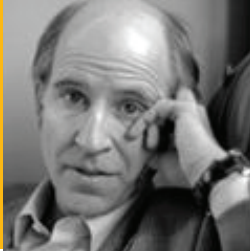

Mr. Perez Motta was appointed Chairman of the Mexican Federal Competition Commission (CFC) in September 2004.

In April 2012, he was designated Chairman of the International Competition Network (ICN), which brings together 127 competition agencies with the aim of addressing common antitrust and enforcement issues. Mr. Perez Motta also served as the ICN's Vice Chair for International Coordination for more than two years. From 2001-2004, he was Mexico's Ambassador to the World Trade Organization (WTO), where he was responsible for the organization of the Doha Ministerial Conference (2001) and the Mexican Chairmanship at Cancun in 2003.

From 1998 to 2000, he acted as head of the Ministry of Trade and Industrial Development's (SECOFI) Representation Office in Brussels, and coordinated the Mexican team during the negotiation of the Free Trade Agreement between Mexico and the EU.

He holds a bachelor's degree in economics from the Instituto Tecnológico Autónomo de México (ITAM), and a master in economics from the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA). Mr. Perez Motta has taught microeconomics, international trade and competition policy at ITAM, El Colegio de México and Instituto Tecnológico y de Estudios Superiores de Monterrey, and is a member of the editorial board of Competition Policy International (CPI).

MR. RICHARD JANDA

PROFESSOR
MCGILL UNIVERSITY
CANADA

Professor Janda teaches business associations, administrative law, competition law, economic regulation, and air transport regulation. He was Law Clerk to Justices Le Dain and Cory of the Supreme Court of Canada and is a past Director of the Centre for the Study of Regulated Industries at McGill. His main current research areas are the legal basis of domestic and global corporate social responsibility and the regulatory regimes governing domestic and global public goods.

Apart from his academic contributions, has been involved in work for the WTO, ICAO, OECD, the World Bank, a number of Canadian public agencies as well as work in a number of developing countries. In 2007, Richard Janda was appointed as Hydro Québec Scholar in Sustainable Development Law for an initial five-year term, which was renewed in 2012.

PROF. WILLIAM KOVACIC

PROFESSOR,
GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY
USA

William Evan Kovacic served as a Commissioner of the Federal Trade Commission from January 4, 2006 to October 3, 2011, and served as Chairman of the agency from March 2008 to March 2009. Prior to his appointment as Commissioner, Kovacic was the E.K. Gubin Professor of Government Contracts Law at George Washington University Law School, where he began teaching in 1999. He previously taught antitrust law at George Mason University. He was the FTC's General Counsel from 2001 through the end of 2004. Kovacic earlier worked at the Commission from 1979 to 1983, first with the Bureau of Competition's Planning Office and later as an attorney advisor to former Commissioner George W. Douglas. After leaving the FTC in 1983, Kovacic was an associate with the Washington, DC, office of Bryan Cave, where he practiced in the firm's antitrust and government contracts departments, until joining the George Mason University School of Law in 1986.

Earlier in his career, he spent one year on the majority staff of the Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly of the U.S. Senate Committee on the Judiciary, which was chaired by Senator Philip A. Hart. Since 1992, Kovacic has served as an adviser on antitrust and consumer protection issues to the governments of Armenia, Benin, Egypt, El Salvador, Georgia, Guyana, Indonesia, Kazakhstan, Mongolia, Morocco, Nepal, Panama, Russia, Ukraine, Vietnam, and Zimbabwe.

Professor Kovacic is the 2011 recipient of the Miles W. Kirkpatrick Award for Lifetime FTC Achievement, acknowledging how much of his professional career and personal passion he has devoted to the agency.

MR. ALI SALMAN

FOUNDER & DIRECTOR
POLICY RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF MARKET ECONOMY (PRIME)
PAKISTAN

Ali Salman is the founder and executive director of Policy Research Institute of Market Economy (PRIME), a free market economy think tank based at Islamabad. He has worked as a consultant for major international development organizations, government entities and non-profits. Ali is author of Price Controls: Implications for Liberty and Welfare, and Discord between Economic Freedom and Social Justice in Islam. Ali writes columns in the Express Tribune, leading English daily. He has master degrees in Economics, Public Policy and Business Administration. Ali is a visiting fellow at Institute of Economic Affairs, London and an alumnus of International Academy of Leadership, Germany.

MR. THEODORE VORHEES

CHAIR—ABA SECTION OF ANTITRUST LAW &
PARTNER COVINGTON & BURLING LLP
USA

Theodore Voorhees is Chair of the ABA Section of Antitrust Law and a partner in the international law firm of Covington & Burling LLP. His antitrust practice encompasses counseling and litigation, with particular emphasis on joint ventures, pricing and distribution arrangements in the United States, and counseling trade associations and their members on antitrust compliance matters.

Mr. Voorhees has counseled and defended clients in the automobile, pharmaceutical, software, chemical, mining, medical devices, outdoor wearing apparel and accessories, cosmetics, construction equipment, flooring, food, and beverage alcohol industries. For many years he has been a co-teacher of his firm's advanced antitrust seminar at the University of Virginia Law School.

MR. R. N. SAHAY

HEAD—INVESTIGATION DIVISION
COMPETITION COMMISSION OF INDIA
INDIA

Shri R. N. Sahay belongs to 1987 batch of Indian Revenue Service. Born on 19th Jan 1960, he has obtained his Masters degree in History and LLB from Patna University, Bihar and has done his MBA (Finance) from XLRI, Jamshedpur.

He joined Competition Commission of India as an Economic Advisor on deputation basis on 10th of June 2009 and currently heading the 'Investigation Division'. It is the mandate of the CCI to take pro-active measures to ensure that market is not distorted either by way of cartelization or AOD. The role of this Division is to support the Commission by developing and building up suo moto cases of unilateral or parallel conduct concerning common man. Besides, the division also helps the Commission in issuing advisories to various Government departments if some competition concerns are noticed in their rules, regulations and policies.

MS. GABRIELE HERLEMANN

HEAD

CHAMBER OF PUBLIC PROCUREMENT TRIBUNALS
BUNDESKARTELLAMT
GERMANY

Gabriele Herlemann studied law at the University of Munich and has a doctorate in law from the Max-Planck-Institute for Intellectual Property in Munich. She started to work as a lawyer in 1989 at the German Competition Authority, the Bundeskartellamt. After the reunification of Germany in 1989 she spent the years from 1991 to 1999 in the former eastern part of Germany, the German Democratic Republic, working in a ministry on state level in Schwerin, Mecklenburg-Vorpommern.

She was responsible for the implementation of public broadcasting in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern and also for the state supervision of public broadcasting. In 1999 she returned to the Bundeskartellamt where she worked in the field of competition law until 2000. After the public procurement tribunals had been established in the national German law at the Bundeskartellamt in 1999 according to the European Directives on public procurement, she started to work as a judge in one of the then two public procurement tribunals. When the third chamber of the public procurement tribunals was established in 2004, she became head of this chamber. She is currently working in this position.

MR. MANUEL SEBASTIÃO

PRESIDENT
PORTUGUESE COMPETITION AUTHORITY, PORTUGAL

Mr. Manuel Sebastião has been the President of the Portuguese Competition Authority since March 2008. Prior to this, he was Member of the Board of Directors, Bank of Portugal; Executive Director, Portuguese Insurance and Pension Funds Supervisory Authority; Advisor, Strategic Planning, Bank of Portugal; Executive Director of the Portuguese Trade and Development Bank (Banco de Fomento e Exterior, S.A., BFE Group), and Executive Director of the commercial bank of the BFE Group.

An economist, Mr. Sebastião has worked with the International Monetary Fund, Bank of Portugal, Portuguese Development Bank, and a consulting firm of the Portuguese private group CUF. He was also the Chief of Staff to the Minister of Industry, and an advisor with the Ministry of Industry. Over the past twenty-five years, at various stages of his career, he was lecturer in economics at the Catholic University of Lisbon, the New University of Lisbon, and the business school ISCTE, also in Lisbon.

Mr. Sebastião holds an undergraduate degree in economics from the Technical University of Lisbon, Portugal, a graduate degree in economic planning from the University of Paris I, France, and a Ph.D. in economics from Columbia University, New York, USA

MR. JOHN M. CONNOR

EMERITUS PROFESSOR
PURDUE UNIVERSITY
USA

Now Emeritus Professor, he taught industrial-organization economics at Purdue University in Indiana from 1983 to 2011. He holds a bachelor's degree in mathematics from Boston College and a Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin. From 1979 to 1983 he was head of Food Manufacturing Research in the Economic Research Service of U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Dr. Connor specializes in empirical research in industrial economics and antitrust policy; since 1997 the focus of his research has been international price-fixing cartels and world-wide enforcement of competition laws. He is the author of 18 books and monographs and more than 200 other scholarly publications in economics and law. His book, Global Price Fixing, received two national writing awards in 2002 and 2003; new editions appeared in 2007 and 2008.

Dr. Connor is also Senior Fellow of the American Antitrust Institute (Washington, DC) and advisor to law firms in cartel cases. In 2009, his lifetime achievements were recognized when he was given the highest honor of the Agricultural and Applied Economics Association, the title of Fellow.

MR. FERNANDO FURLAN

MANAGING PARTNER
FURLAN ASSOCIATES
BRAZIL

Fernando de Magalhães Furlan, 44, is managing partner at Furlan Associados, in Brasília. He was president of the Administrative Council of Economic Defense (CADE), Brazil (2011-2012), acting President of CADE (2010-2011), CADE Commissioner (2008-2011) and CADE general counsel/attorney general (2001-2003), appointed for those positions by 3 different presidents of Brazil and approved by the Senate. Mr. Furlan was director/head of the Department of Trade Remedies (DECOM/SECEX) at the Ministry of Development, Industry and Foreign Trade of Brazil (2005-2008). From 2003 to 2005, he served as chief of staff for the Minister of State for Development, being also appointed acting Minister of State. Mr. Furlan seated as chairman of the auditing board of the Brazilian Agency for Industrial Development – ABDI (2004-2008). He was also member of the Board of the Special Agency for Industrial Financing (FINAME) of the National Bank for Economic and Social Development (BNDES) from 2005 to 2007.

Mr. Furlan served in several other professional and directive positions in the Brazilian public service, including the National Congress and the Brazilian Supreme Court; in law firms in the U.S. and Europe and in leading corporations in Brazil. Mr. Furlan received his Ph.D. degree (doctorat) from the University of Paris I – Panthéon Sorbonne (France) in 2006, where he also received his master’s degree in 2000. He obtained his law degree from University of Brasilia (Brazil) in 1993 and his business administration degree from the University of Santa Catarina (Brazil) in 1991. From March to August/2012 Mr. Furlan was a post-doctoral research fellow under the project: “Settlements of Trade Disputes between China and Latin American Countries” at the Faculty of Law of the University of Macau, China. He is also member of the Dispute Settlement Body of MERCOSUR and is currently working for the United Nations (Unctad) as an ad hoc consultant in competition policy projects in Pakistan and in several Latin American countries.

MR. JOHN K. DAINA

SENIOR ECONOMIST –ENFORCEMENT DIVISION
COMPETITION AUTHORITY OF KENYA
KENYA

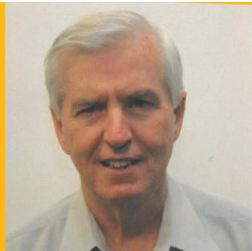

Mr. John K. Daina is a holder of B.A Economics degree (Moi University) and a Diploma in Purchasing and Supply Management (the Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply, UK). He has been working with the Competition Authority of Kenya, in the position of a Senior Economist, Enforcement Division, since its establishment in August, 2011. Previously, he was working with the Monopolies and Prices Commission, since November, 2003. In addition, he worked as a Procurement Officer with various Ministries within the Government of Kenya, since 1998.

Mr. Daina has worked on a number of mergers, enforcement and exemption cases at the Competition Authority covering a wide range of industries including: alcoholic drinks, sports, horticultural, air transport, maize and maize flour and mining. He has also participated enormously in the process of developing the strategy and systems of the new competition Authority of Kenya.

In addition, he contributed immensely in enactment of the EAC Common Market Protocol and also in the 2012, W.T.O. trade review process for the East Africa Community member states. Currently, he is part of a joint research team, organized by the African Competition Forum (ACF) to study the dynamics of Competition in the Cement sector in five countries (Kenya, South Africa, Zambia, Botswana and Tanzania).

MR. TIMOTHY T. HUGHES, J.D.

ATTORNEY
FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION
USA

Tim Hughes has been an attorney with the Federal Trade Commission for 28 years. During the past 11 years he has served as Legal Counsel for International Technical Assistance in the Office of the General Counsel. He has conducted numerous investigations and represented the FTC in the court litigation of non-criminal horizontal agreements, monopolizations, and mergers. He has lived for extended periods in Romania, Indonesia, Vietnam and Colombia, providing training and counseling to the competition authorities of Southeast Europe, Southeast Asia, and Latin America.

He has participated as a teacher-panelist in the OECD's training seminars in Eastern Europe and Korea, and has conducted short-term training missions for the staff of over 20 competition authorities. Prior to returning to the FTC in 2001, he practiced competition law in the private sector as a partner in the international law firm of Steel, Hector & Davis, headquartered in Miami, Florida with offices throughout Latin America. He received his bachelor's degree from Fordham University, New York; and his degree in law, Juris Doctor, in 1976 from Northwestern University, Chicago.

MS. HILARY JENNINGS

GLOBAL RELATIONS PROGRAMME
OECD COMPETITION DIVISION

Hilary Jennings is Head of the Global Relations Programme in the OECD's Competition Division. She designs and implements OECD's capacity building activities and policy dialogue with developing and emerging economies in the area of competition law and policy. This includes country programmes as well as overseeing the OECD's annual Global Forum on Competition and the Latin American Competition Forum, and two Regional Centres for Competition: one based in Hungary, the other in Korea.

Before joining the OECD, Hilary worked as EU/International Government Relations Manager at HSBC and for five years was Head of International at the United Kingdom's Office of Fair Trading. She also held posts as: European policy adviser to the EEF, the UK-based manufacturers' organisation; Research Fellow at the British Institute of International and Comparative Law; and Head of Research for a public affairs agency in London. Hilary holds an LL.M in International Business Law from King's College London and has studied at the Institut d'Etudes Européennes at the Université Libre de Bruxelles as part of her LL.B (Hons.) with French from the University of Sussex.

MS. KASTURI MOODALIYAR

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF COMPETITION LAW
UNIVERSITY OF WITWATERSRAND, SCHOOL OF LAW
SOUTH AFRICA

Kasturi Moodaliyar is an Associate Professor of Competition Law at the University of Witwatersrand, School of Law. Prior to her joining the Law School in February 2005 she worked as an enforcement and exemptions investigator and there after a merger analyst at the Competition Commission in Pretoria. Kasturi graduated from the University of Natal with B.Proc.LLB and LL.M degrees. She was admitted as an Attorney of the High Court of South Africa in 2000. Kasturi was awarded the Nelson Mandela Magdalene scholarship to read for her M.Phil degree in criminological research at Cambridge University in 2001. In 2004 she completed the Programme in Economics and Public Finance at Unisa. She is currently reading for her PhD in Competition Law.

She is also the coordinating editor for the Butterworths Competition Law Reports and has been a guest editor on the South African Journal of Economics and Management Sciences. She has published both nationally and internationally in the field of competition law. Kasturi joined the Film and Publication Board as an Appeal Tribunal Member late 2011. She is also an adjudicating member of ICT regulator ICASA's Complaints and Compliance Commission. Her fields of interests include competition law, criminology, criminal law and telecommunications regulation. Kasturi has been recognized as one of the Best of the Best: Up and Coming Top Female Antitrust and Law Professors (2010) and made the list of the Mail & Guardian 200 Top Young South Africans (2012). She co-edited the recent publication entitled "The Development of Competition Law and Economics in South Africa".

MR. SAAD AMANULLAH KHAN

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER
GILLETTE PAKISTAN
PAKISTAN

Saad took over as Chief Executive Officer of Gillette Pakistan in March 2007. Before joining Gillette, he worked in Procter & Gamble (P&G) for 20 years with assignments in Switzerland, Saudi Arabia and Pakistan. In P&G his last assignment was as Deputy General Manager and Finance Manager P&G Pakistan.

Saad has an MBA from The University of Michigan as well as two engineering degrees; Systems Engineering (Automation) and Computer Science Engineering. He joined P&G for an international assignment based in Geneva, Switzerland. Prior to his MBA, he worked in Saudi Arabia with engineering assignments in the industrial estates of Jubial and Yanbu.

Saad is active on social responsibility front with board or advisory roles in a number of NGO's. He is currently the President of the American Business Council (ABC), and has led the ABC Taxation Sub-committee as Chairman for the last 9 years. He also conceptualized, led and delivered in Rs 1 billion from USAID to the Bolton Market victims in early 2010 in an efficient and transparent manner under the umbrella of American Business Council.

Saad is also co-founder of Pakistan Innovation Foundation (creating an ecosystem for driving innovation) and Alamut (focus on fund management and impact investment). Saad is an active speaker at different forums in Pakistan and abroad. He focuses on topics related to Leadership, Vision and Strategies, Governance and HR Excellence. Saad has organized and led two ABC Economic Summit's in 2011 and 2012 to help debate and discuss Pakistan's most troubling economic issues.

"A to Z of Business Success: From Setting a Vision and Delivering it through Organizational Excellence" will be Saad's first formally published book. In addition, he has published research papers on diverse topics such as "Why Some Democracies Don't Survive?", "Quran for Inquisitive Minds", "Pakistan an Economic Powerhouse". He is also an active contributor in local newspapers with articles focused on economic growth, democracy and other leadership related topics.

MR. ERIC DAVID MANES

SENIOR ECONOMIST FOR SOUTH ASIA,
WORLD BANK

Eric Manes has worked in the field of international development for almost three decades since joining the World Bank in 1984. During that time Mr. Manes has worked in over 25 countries in four of regions, helping to promote functioning markets, open access and free trade. Beginning in 1987, Mr. Manes spend a decade helping to develop and apply the economics of transition for countries of Central Europe and the former Soviet Union. Following a brief period in the private sector, Mr. Manes spent 4 years at the Asian Development Bank helping to help foster financial sector development and infrastructure reforms in East Asia.

Since returning to the World Bank in 2004, Mr. Manes has covered private sector development issues for the countries of South Asia, and has focusing primarily on systems of market governance, including competition law, bankruptcy, international trade and business regulation. Mr. Manes has advanced degrees in Economics from The Johns Hopkins University and in Finance from the London Business School.

DR. ORCUN SENYUCEL

HEAD OF SUPERVISION AND ENFORCEMENT DEPARTMENT IV
TURKISH COMPETITION AUTHORITY
TURKEY

Dr. Senyucel joined the Turkish Competition Authority in 1998 and served as an Assistant Expert for four years. Between 2002 and 2010 he served as a Competition Expert and in 2010 he became the Head of Supervision and Enforcement Department IV.

Dr. Senyucel has a Phd from Hacettepe University, Turkey. The title of his Phd thesis was “Efficiency Estimation and Quality of Service in Turkish Electricity Distribution”. He also has an LLM in European Community Law from the University of Essex in the UK. He also holds a Bsc. from the Middle East Technical University. Dr. Senyucel has published widely in the Competition Journal some of his publications in the Competition Journal include: “Inferences for Turkey in the Light of New EC Commission Notice on Remedies” and “A General Overview of Microsoft Case”. Dr. Senyucel has also published articles for the Ankara Law Review and Ankara Review of European Studies. His thesis “Empirical Analyses in Competition Economics” was published by the Turkish Competition Authority.

MR. EL HASSAN BERRI

DIRECTOR OF STUDIES AND INFORMATION,
CONSEIL DE LA CONCURRENCE DU MAROC
MOROCCO

Mr. Berri joined the Competition Council, in 2010, as a case handler and director of studies and information. He was responsible for monitoring the studies launched by the institution to understand the functioning of the market in view of the competition. Some of the studies he conducted and published with the competition council included studies on the mobile phone market, supermarkets, credit for consumption, pharmaceutical industries, cement, banking and procurement.

Between 2005 and 2010, he was responsible for sectoral policy evaluation at the Ministry of Economy and Finance specifically manufacturing. He conducted research on high-growth companies in the industrial sector, job creation and destruction, a comparative study of small and medium enterprises (SMEs) with large industrial companies (LIEs), firms demography (mortality and birth of companies).

From 1998 to 2005, he was a Head of Division of studies on employment and wages in the department of labor. He supervised a series of studies on the demand and supply of labor, the relationship between prices and wages, employment in the informal sector, etc. He also set up a database on employment and wages, and chaired a seminar with the ILO's Key Indicators of the Labor Market.

The beginning of his professional career was at the Ministry of Industry and Commerce in 1984 where he started as an investigator and then was responsible for industrial surveys and all information relating to the sector. He was in charge of all the process of implementation of the annual survey of industries from the questionnaire to the publication of the results.

Mr. Berri holds an engineering degree in Statistics and Applied Economics, and a Master in Public Management.

MR. JEAN-SÉBASTIEN ROURE

SENIOR OFFICER,
BUSINESS & TRADE POLICY SECTION
INTERNATIONAL TRADE CENTRE (ITC)
SWITZERLAND

For the last 10 years Mr. Roure has been providing technical support through programmes aimed at building capacity of the private sector in developing countries to effectively engage in business advocacy with their governments on domestic policy and regulatory reforms, multilateral and regional / bilateral trade negotiations.

Since 2011 to date he has, been engaged with Pakistan, managing and supervising the implementation of the Component on Trade Policy Capacity Building of the EU funded Trade Related Technical Assistance Programme (TRTA II) whose main objectives are to build the technical expertise of Pakistan based institutions on specific trade policy topics, inform dialogue between government, private sector and civil society on trade related issues and support to improve transparencies in trade and investment policies.

Mr. Roure has experience as a competition lawyer working with Linklaters and Alliance and as a lobbyist for major Europe based US companies in Brussels, Belgium (area of expertise: European competition law, mergers and acquisitions in the following areas: pharmaceuticals, retailing, energy, car industry, postal services). He was also a lobbyist for major European companies in Washington DC, USA.

30TH MAY, 2013

WORKSHOP FOR CCP OFFICIALS
WITH THE DELEGATES
AT CCP HEADQUARTERS

PIERRE MAYAUDON

DEPUTY HEAD OF DELEGATION,
EUROPEAN UNION DELEGATION ISLAMABAD

Mr. Mayaudon is currently serving as the Deputy Head of Delegation for the European Union Delegation in Islamabad. Prior to this assignment he was the Deputy Director General at the International affairs directorate of the Procurement Agency, Ministry of Defence in Paris. He held this position from 2008 to 2011. Prior to this he served as the Ambassador of France to the Pacific Island nation of Vanuatu from 2005 to 2008. Other positions he held include-- Director of the Cabinet, Cabinet of the Minister of State for War Veterans from 2002-2005. He was the First counselor of the French Embassy to Singapore between 1999 to 2002. He served as the Director (Asia-America-Africa) at the International Affairs directorate, Procurement Agency, Ministry of Defence, Paris between 1996 to 1999. In addition Mr. Mayaudon has held junior positions in the Ministry of Defence in Paris.

Mr. Mayaudon has attended the prestigious Paris Institute of Political Studies (Sciences Po' Paris) and the National School of Administration (ENA).

MR. KAUKAB IQBAL

CHAIRMAN
CONSUMERS ASSOCIATION OF PAKISTAN
PAKISTAN

Mr. Iqbal generated the idea for consumer policy to be taken into account in all other Pakistani policies and thus founded the Consumers Association of Pakistan (CAP) in 2000 which works nation-wide to maintain close links with the Pakistani related departments and Parliament, both through direct contact with members of the Parliament and through the Committees.

In his role as the Chairman of CAP, Mr. Iqbal undertakes a number of important activities including: Liaison with, consultant of Consumers International, visiting various Bachat Bazar and making arrangements to display banners to control prices of essential goods, participate in surprise visits to control hoarding in collaboration with City District Government Karachi, meeting with heads and concerned officers of various department to address problems faced by consumers including WAPDA, KESC, Nazims, Naib Nazims, Minister of Food and Agriculture, KCCI, Ministry of Industry, SSGC, Pakistan National Accredited Council (PNAC), Pakistan Standard and Quality Control Authority and many more.

CAP has taken up many important issues with regards to adulteration in food items, controlling price hikes, identification of toothpastes containing steroids, alert on consumer financing schemes fleecing consumers etc. In addition Mr. Iqbal has demanded and Participated in efforts to establish consumers courts and promulgation of Consumers Protection Act in all four provinces of Pakistan. He has participated in TV talk shows and radio programmes on consumer's rights and the environment

Mr. Iqbal is also a member of a number of other forums. He is the Vice-chairman of the Pakistan Economic Forum, General Secretary AK Trust, Director Board Universal Service Fund of the Ministry of Information & Technology.

DR. HUMA BUKHARI

FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT
CONSUMER WELFARE FORUM
PAKISTAN

Dr. Huma Bukhari is the founder President of Consumer Welfare Forum— a non-government organisation that has undertaken the responsibility of providing voluntary services to consumers to create awareness about their rights and responsibilities and to make collective and dedicated efforts for protecting their rights. She is also one of the founding members of Consumer Rights Council (CRC), Government of Sindh, Chairperson of the Standing Committee of Consumer Rights Protection, Federation of Pakistan Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and Member of the Price Control Committee, City District Government Karachi. Undertaking various research and awareness initiatives, she has conducted qualitative and quantitative research on consumer-related issues such as price fixing. She has organised seminars for creating awareness about Consumer Rights in collaboration with universities, chambers of commerce and other government bodies. She is also responsible for the advocacy drive for promulgation of consumer law in the province of Sindh. Since over a decade, she also has been conducting media programs on consumer-related issues.

As an educationist, Ms. Bukhari is associated with the New-ports Institute of Communications and Economics, Karachi as Rector and Vice Chairperson. She is also Member of Senate, Shaheed Benazir Bhutto Medical University, Larkana, Member, Network for Electoral Participation, Government of Pakistan, and Member, United Nations Global Compact, Pakistan Network. She also played an instrumental role in formulating the Consumer Ordinance for the Government of Sindh.

MR. HAMID MAKER

FOUNDER
HELPLINE TRUST
PAKISTAN

Mr. Maker qualified as a Textile Engineer from Leeds University and joined the family business in 1964. He retired from active business 10 years back and handed over the business to his son to manage. After retirement, he established Helpline Trust in 1996, and has been actively advocating good governance, accountability and a code of conduct in government and society and the enforcement of the rule of law, to improve the quality of life of the citizens.

Helpline Trust has also taken up civic oriented issues like Consumer Rights, Consumer Protection and Patient's Rights Laws, Education and Traffic Improvement and other related programs, through the electronic and print media, a weekly Straight Talk article in the Nation and Daily News newspapers, panel discussions, seminars and debates.

DR. CHRISTINA HUMMER

PARTNER,
SAXINGER, CHALUPSKY & PARTNER
RECHTSANWÄLTE GMBH

Christina Hummer has worked as a partner at SCWP in Brussels and Vienna since 2010. Since 2002, she has worked for international law firms in both Washington, DC, and Brussels on matters relating to cartel law. After completing her degree in law (Mag.iur.) in 1999 and her doctorate (Dr. iur.) in 2001, she completed a Master of Laws (LL.M.) at New York University in 2002. She also completed a diploma in economics in competition law at King's College in London, UK, in 2007. Christina Hummer has been an attorney at law in New York since 2003, a solicitor in England & Wales since 2004 and a European lawyer in private practice in Brussels since 2005 and in Vienna since 2009.

She advises domestic and foreign companies on European and national cartel law and has extensive experience in antitrust proceedings before the European Commission and national competition authorities, in particular in cartel investigations, merger filings, proceedings relating to abuse of a dominant position and state aid. She also regularly advises on antitrust compliance. In addition, Christina Hummer regularly publishes and is a speaker at conferences.

DR. M. FEVZI TOKSOY

FOUNDING PARTNER
ACTECON
TURKEY

Dr. M. Fevzi Toksoy is a EU Law specialist, an economist and has a PhD in EU Law. Dr. Toksoy works in the field of EU and Turkish competition law, international trade remedies and government affairs. He is one of the founding partners of ACTECON and offers solutions to customers in competition investigations, merger clearances and preventive competition compliance programs. Dr. Toksoy also heads the government affairs department in ACTECON and advises Turkish branch of multinational companies in this newly evolving practice.

He has advised clients in investigations conducted by the Competition Authority. Dr. Toksoy also prepared many successful merger notifications, negative clearance and individual exemption applications in a variety of industries. Dr. Toksoy has dealt with antitrust matters across a wide range of industries, particularly in mergers and joint ventures, restrictive practices, distribution systems and abuse of dominant position, in areas such as automotive distribution, information technology, environment, energy, FMCG, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, etc. He has practical experience in public and private sector competition law related commercial problems in Turkey such as subcontracting, licensing, distribution schemes and intellectual property rights.

Dr. Toksoy conducts competition compliance programs in different industries and leads and designs workshops and training sessions in mainly multinationals from different industries. He serves as a member of the Competition Law Committee of ICC Turkey, board member of Turkish Ethics and Reputation Association, Associate Member of ABA and national reporter of International Antitrust committee, Advisory Board Member of Bilgi University (Istanbul) Competition Law and Policy Research Center.

He is the author of a number of articles and has co-authored two books and edited a number of competition journals.

MR. CHARLES WEBB

PARTNER
BAKER BOTTS-LLP
USA

Charles Webb counsels clients in the areas of mergers, international transactions, monopolization and abuse of dominance law, consumer protection, telecommunications regulation and postal regulation. His practice has a very international dimension, as Mr. Webb is the former Legal Advisor (2005-2007) and Executive Director (2007-2010) of the Jersey Competition Regulatory Authority (JCRA), the independent competition law enforcement authority and telecommunications and postal regulator for the Island of Jersey in the Channel Islands. Mr. Webb developed the JCRA's links with other competition agencies, including the European Commission, the Office of Fair Trading and Competition Commission in the U.K. and the French Autorité de la concurrence.

Recently recognized as one of the top "40 under 40" antitrust attorneys worldwide by the Global Competition Review, clients benefit from Mr. Webb's direct, "on the ground" experience of practicing under both U.S. antitrust law and E.U.

competition law. He has represented numerous clients on a wide variety of matters before the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, the U.S. Department of Justice Antitrust Division and non-U.S. competition and regulatory agencies. He has also advised clients on the competition/antitrust risk arising from various business practices, and developed strategies to minimize risk. His experience covers industries such as agriculture, airlines, ferries, financial services, mining, telecommunications and postal services.

Mr. Webb is a frequent author and speaker on antitrust/competition law issues. He also has taken an active role in the International Competition Network (ICN), first through the JCRA and more recently as a Non-Governmental Advisor. Within the ICN, Mr. Webb has helped develop internationally recognized best practice principles with respect to the assessment of dominance and the application of competition law to state-created monopolies.

MR. JOHN MARTISTINE ALPONSU DOUGLAS

DIRECTOR GENERAL,
CONSUMER AFFAIRS AUTHORITY
SRI LANKA

Mr Douglas graduated from the University of Sri Jayawardenapura in BSc, Business Administration and holds a Masters in Public Management from Sri Lanka Institute of Development Administration. His field of expertise includes: Public Administration & civil service, Human Resource Development, Development and Implementation of organizational strategies and policies, Advocacy and Policy Development, Gender and Development, Monitoring and Evaluation, Donor reporting and Fund Management.

He has attended a number of professional trainings and qualifications including “Leadership orientation Programme for Sri Lanka Administrative Service Officers” from Administrative Service College Hyderabad, “Environment Management” conducted by SLIDA, “Quality Assurance in TVET” conducted by Colombo Plan Staff College for Technical Education and “SAARC Training workshop on needs of children in disasters in South Asia”.

Sponsored by the European Union

Competition Commission of Pakistan
Creating a Level Playing Field